

Benefits of Networking

1. You'll get a better idea of all the jobs available to you.
2. You can meet people who know about jobs that aren't advertised.
3. It helps develop yourself personally and professionally.
4. You can meet people who might be interested in hiring you in the future.

A great way to start networking is to set up a Facebook or LinkedIn Profile and invite professionals in your job field to connect with you.

We believe that ALL people deserve a chance to learn and succeed.

Ascendant Community Education ("ACE") partners with banks and other financial services companies to provide free financial literacy education to low to moderate income households.
